Tips and Ideas for Home

Info was taken directly from: How to Get Your Preschooler Through Cold and Flu Season at School \(tylekteaches.com\)

How To Prepare Ahead of Cold and Flu Season

1. STOCK UP ON HYGIENE PRODUCTS

Make sure you have enough tissues, wipes, hand sanitizer, aquaphor and hand cream. The tissues, wipes, and hand sanitizer are for wiping and disinfecting, and the aquaphor and hand cream are for moisturizing after. A lot of companies also now make child friendly hand sanitizers so definitely stock up on those.

2. INCREASE THE VITAMIN INTAKE

Up the natural juice in take! This is a crucial one, something I stress to my teachers as well. As previously discussed, your immune system will kind of be all over the place during these few months so its a great idea to stock up on some great vitamins, and for kids perhaps a baby vitamin or natural juice. But not the sugary ones that make them bounce off the walls please! That is of no help to anyone, and has no beneficial vitamins either.

A festive Christmas garland with green pine needles, red and gold ornaments, and gold ribbons runs across the top of the page.

Tips and Ideas for Home

3. TEACH THE ELBOW SNEEZE!

This literally means teach them to cough/sneeze into their elbow. This is something we do every year and is a really big help once the preschoolers master it. Even though they only do it about 50% of the time, that is still 50% less of them sneezing on another student, work material, or teacher : /.

4. THE HAND WASH CYCLE

Wash their hands repeatedly. No seriously, as often as possible. I know this can sound really redundant and obvious, but honestly the more you make it a habit, the more your preschooler will too. Lead by example, help them, make it a cool big kid responsibility. And if you think you're doing it enough, just do it a little bit more. Trust me, you'll be happy you did.

Sharks (3-5 Year Old's)

Welcome December!!!

I cannot believe we are in the last month of 2022! Time has gone by so fast. It's been a couple of months of teaching your children and watching them grow. It took them a while to adjust to new bodies in the classroom and new routine, but I can say they have adjusted quite well!

In the month of November, students were engaged in weather, pumpkins and obsessed with PETE THE CAT!!! If you are not familiar with PETE THE CAT, I invite you to explore some of his books. The children really love them. Students really enjoyed our dramatic play area this month, the pumpkin patch really had them involved using their imagination skills.

In the month of December, we will be jumping into the clothes unit, gingerbread unit, and holidays all over the world unit. All these units will include social-emotional, math, science, literacy, and social studies objectives!!! We cannot forget physical objectives as well. Please make sure to download the PROCARE APP to stay engaged with us and follow us on our FACEBOOK PAGE.

During this month we will have a "Winter Wonderland" theme with different topics such as- day/night, winter clothing, and winter fun activities with candy canes and gingerbread houses! The last days of the year we will learn of such Holidays around the world and New Years Eve celebrations!

Bumblebees (3 Year Old's)

Bye November and We now Welcome December! Our Main Topic during the month of November was "Healthy Eating". During the month of November, we discussed different themes such as; Fruits and vegetables, Being Thankful, Turkey, pilgrims, native Americans, Day and Night. Healthy Eating was our main topic, and the one students enjoyed the most. We discussed the Five food groups and why it is important to have most of them in our daily meal. Those groups are "Fruits, Vegetables, Grains, Proteins Foods, and Dairy". With the participation of the parents, we had the opportunity to make a fruit Salad, it was so much fun making it and it was delicious!

For this month of December, our focus will be teaching the kids about Winter Fun, Holidays Around the world, Snow, Candy canes, and Gingerbread Houses! Be sure to always point out Changes you notice as well when your child is with you during this month. This will help them expand their Language and Knowledge, also do not forget to stay warm during this Freezing Month. Once again, we welcome you December!
